

Bond Children's Holiday Camp

In December 2008, Bond University held its first ever Children's Holiday Camp for children with disabilities. The inaugural camp saw 25 Bond University students volunteer to give up four days of their Christmas holidays so that they could be companions for 15 disabled children from around the Gold Coast.

The camp aims to provide the children with a chance to meet new friends and to have some great experiences and provided the parents of these children with some much needed Christmas respite.

The camp was a truly rewarding experience for both children and carers alike and was an example of the difference Bond students can make when they engage with our community.

This year we want to expand the camp to cater for 25 disabled children and 40 student volunteers. However we need your help! We need to raise $18,000 to cover the expenses of this year's camp.

The Bond Children's Holiday Camp is a not for profit organisation run by current students studying at Bond University on the Gold Coast. All contributions will go towards covering the costs of the camp. This will include covering food and beverage requirements, accommodation, transport, equipment, ticket prices and miscellaneous items.

None of this will be possible without your generous support. As a not-for profit student led initiative, the Bond Children's Holiday Camp relies on our community's generous support to ensure that this fantastic and worthwhile initiative continues in 2009.
